

Hurricane Preparedness 2024

Embrace the Storm: Hurricane Season 2024

With a keen eye on the horizon, the Thomas Howell Ferguson P.A. CPAs (THF) Government Consulting (Gov Con) team is gearing up for Hurricane Season and encourages you to do the same.

The 2024 Hurricane Season is set to be an unprecedented season. As of the end of April, we have already had one disturbance in the Atlantic and are predicted to have 24 named storms, 11 of which will become Hurricanes and 6 are projected to be a Category 3 or stronger. This is well over the average of 14 named storms, 7 Hurricanes, and 3 major Hurricanes in a given season.

There is no better time to prepare than now, and THF is here to assist you in any way possible.

Remember to inspire your residents, employees, or county/city fleet managers to maintain gas tanks at half capacity throughout the season. FDEM advocates the "Halfway Full, Halfway There" approach.

We hope you have a safe, happy, and healthy Hurricane Season!
